DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-6 are allowed.

Applicant's invention is drawn to the present invention relates to a method of wireless communication system determination (SD); and, more particularly, to a method for determining a wireless communication system by selecting a wireless communication system having higher priority from a group of available wireless communication systems without considering a corresponding service region of the wireless communication system.

Applicant's independent claim 1: The present in invention is directed to a method for selecting a wireless communication system as define in the specification (paragraph 0020-0035), independent claim identifies the uniquely distinct feature "if there are any available wireless communication system having identical system type as a result of the determining, selecting a wireless communication system having highest priority in the PRL by searching wireless communication system in the first service area and a plurality of second service areas neighbored to the first service area and second service areas; and if there are not any available wireless communication system having identical system type as a result of the determining, selecting a wireless communication system having highest priority in the PRL by searching wireless communication system in a plurality of second service areas neighbored to the first service area". Applicant's
